Purpose
Our Infant and Child Feeding Questionnaire© was authored by internationally recognized feeding experts to provide information regarding typical feeding development and to help identify potential areas of concern that can be shared with a child’s physician.

Goals
The questionnaire is aimed to help improve early identification and referral of at-risk infants and children to appropriate services. In addition, it will contribute to research studies on pediatric feeding struggles to help determine best screening practices for early referral and intervention.

Please visit our website at www.feedingmatters.org/questionnaire to learn more!

AUTHORS
Joan C. Arvedson
PhD, CCC-SLP, BRS-S, ASHA Fellow

Joy V. Browne
PhD, PCNS-BC, IMH(E)

Amy L. Delaney
PhD, CCC-SLP

Mary Beth Feuling
MS, RD, CNSD

Elizabeth Fischer
PhD

Erika Gisel
PhD, OTR, erg.

Marsha Dunn-Klein
Med, OTR/L

Suzanne Evans Morris
PhD

Erin Sundseth Ross
PhD, CCC-SLP

Colin Rudolph
MD, PhD

Kay A. Toomey
PhD

EDITS
Aimee Langlois
Professor Emerita, Humboldt State University

Trudi Norman-Murch
PhD, CCC-SLP

Daniel B. Kessler
MD